Green Book pgs. A-8 and A-9

Gather evidence from the article to either support or refute the following statements. Write down your evidence.

Statement: Creating the music for a film is usually a job for one person

Statement: Music is an important aspect of film

How to Compose a Killer Film Score, by Michael Giacchino

Gather evidence from the article to either support or refute the following statement. Write down your evidence.

Statement: Matching the emotion of the film to the emotion of the music is an important aspect of writing a film score

Mark Isham Interview

Gather evidence from the interview clip to either support or refute the following statements. Write your evidence under each statement.

1. Modern technology can be helpful in composing a soundtrack

2. It is not necessary to watch the movie at all times while composing a soundtrack